ABSTRACT

This bibliography of selected fiction books is designed to reinforce creative growth, expand experience, and promote understanding and personal development for visually or physically disabled students between grade 4 and grade 6. All the books listed are available on disc, on cassette, or in braille in network library collections provided by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped of the Library of Congress. The list is divided into 17 sections: fairy tales and folklore; friendship; family life; poetry and music; tales of mystery; adventure stories; fantasy and science fiction; sports, pets, and amusements; frontier and pioneer life; historical fiction; short stories; humor; winter readings; spring readings; summer readings; autumn readings; and special days of celebration. Each entry contains a brief description of the story, an indication of reading level, and a publication date. The guide also contains descriptions of other bibliographies which list materials for individuals with visual impairments. An author-title index and an order form complete the volume. (JDD)

Introduction

Discoveries: Fiction for Intermediate School Years is a guide to selected fiction books. All the books listed are available on disc, on cassette, or in braille in network library collections provided by the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Library of Congress.

This bibliography has been designed to reinforce creative growth. It suggests literature for students between grade 4 and grade 6. In reading books from the various sections of the bibliography, readers will learn that language and stories can be used to expand experience and to promote understanding and personal development. Each book includes one of the following statements: grades 4-6, grades 4-7, and grades 5-7. These statements are only general guidelines. Intermediate readers might choose to discover books outside their grade level.

Discoveries: Fiction for Intermediate School Years is available in large-print and braille formats. The large-print edition contains titles on disc, on cassette, or in braille. The braille edition lists only braille. In the large-print edition, books available on flexible disc are cited with their cassette versions.

The list of fiction books is divided into seventeen sections. Each section is arranged alphabetically by author. Each book is briefly annotated. To locate a book, use the table of contents, which lists books by subject and format, or the alphabetical author-title index. To order books, complete the order form at the back of the bibliography and send it to your cooperating library. Book numbers are listed by format. Flexible-disc book numbers are included on the order form after the braille listing.

1 volume
The Monroe family goes on vacation, thoughtlessly leaving their loyal dog Harold and clever cat Chester at a fleatrap called the Chateau Bow-Wow. Chester knows the place is harboring werewolves. First there is the howling, then the disappearances, and finally the dread suspicion of murder. Sequel to Bunnicula (BR 4392). For grades 4-7 and older readers. 1983.

The Goof That Won the Pennant BR 3820
by Jonah Kalb
1 volume
An assortment of misfits and oddballs used to losing every baseball game suddenly develops a taste for winning. They find themselves in a miraculous tie for first place when a once-in-a-lifetime error comes their way. A fast and funny tale based on a classic baseball goof. For grades 4-7. 1976.

Zoe's Zodiac BR 2075
by Mary Jo Stephens
2 volumes
Zoe's prize in the pet shop contest, a pet a month for one year, causes a great upheaval in her family. For grades 4-7. 1971.

About the Free Reading Program

The National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS) loans books and magazines to individuals who have problems reading because of a visual or physical limitation, temporary or permanent.

Books, playback equipment, headphones, and other aids are delivered by mail. Book descriptions, catalogs, and bibliographies such as this one are also mailed regularly to inform readers of new materials available.

No postage is required to borrow or return books, equipment, and other materials, and all materials are free.

Thousands of books on discs, cassettes, and in braille are available through a network of cooperating libraries. Fiction and nonfiction selections include classics, romances, science fiction, biographies, bestsellers, gothic novels, how-to books, and many more. Popular magazines are converted into discs, cassettes, and braille, and mailed to subscribers directly from producers. Music services are provided directly from NLS.

Eligibility for the program is determined by the inability to see well enough to read a conventional print book or to hold a book and turn pages. Individuals wishing service need a brief statement describing their disability from a competent authority such as a medical doctor, nurse, optometrist, ophthalmologist, staff member of a health care institution, or a librarian.

For specific eligibility requirements and more information, write to the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, Library of Congress, Washington, DC 20542.
